PURPOSE

The sports camp for Ukranina children organized by Acts of Mercy, aims to provide a safe and inclusive environment for children to participate in sports activities. The camp's primary goal is to promote physical well-being, teamwork, and sportsmanship among the children. Additionally, the camp strives to nurture positive relationships with the children and the surrounding community. The camp seeks to cultivate an environment for the children to experience the love and message of the gospel while creating a supportive and welcoming atmosphere. Acts of Mercy is dedicated to organizing a meaningful and impactful event that leaves a positive impression on both the children and the community involved.
